CHAPTER 20: BECOMING A WORLD POWER

CHAPTER OBJECTIVES
Briefly, but completely, answer the following in note form.

1. Explain each of the major motivations for American expansionism in the 1890s.
2. State several arguments for and against the annexation of the Philippines.
3. Explain the principles of Theodore Roosevelt’s foreign policy and describe the role of the U.S. in Asia, Europe, and the Caribbean between 1890 and 1912.

PEOPLE AND GROUPS
Briefly identify the following, concentrating on significance and contribution. In the margin put the number of the objective(s) from above that the person or group belongs with OR PLACE THEM UNDER THE APPROPRIATE OBJECTIVE.

- William Seward
- James G. Blaine
- Queen Liliuokalani
- Alfred T. Mahan
- Josiah Strong
- General “Butcher” Wyler
- Depuy de Lome
- T. Roosevelt (before & during presidency)
- George Dewey
- Rough Riders
- Emilio Aguinaldo
- Anti-Imperialist League
- Philander Knox
- Kaiser Wilhelm II
- John Hay
- Henry Cabot Lodge

LAWS/DOCUMENTS/EVENTS
Briefly describe the following concentrating on causes and effects. In the margin put the number of the objective(s) from above that the law/document/event belongs with OR PLACE THEM UNDER THE APPROPRIATE OBJECTIVE.

- Teller Amendment
- Treaty of Paris, 1898
- Platt Amendment
- “Insular Cases”, 1901
- Hay-Bunau-Varilla Treaty
- Monroe Doctrine
- Roosevelt Corollary
- Open Door Policy
- Treaty of Portsmouth
- Takihera Amendment
- Pan-American Conference, 1889
- Boxer Rebellion
- Russo-Japanese War
- “Great White Fleet” tour

TERMS
Briefly define the following. In the margin put the number of the objective(s) from above that the term belongs with OR PLACE THEM UNDER THE APPROPRIATE OBJECTIVE.

- “white man’s burden”
- imperialism
- anti-imperialists
- yellow journalism
- dollar diplomacy